INSTRUCTION IN MUSIC.

THE UNDERSIGNED wishes to acquaint his friends and the public that he will continue the duties of his profession in giving instruction on the Piano and in Vocal Music, and in the theory and practice of the science of Harmony, at his residence, or at the private dwellings of his pupils.

The arrangements are such that pupils commencing or already advanced in their musical studies can, at their option, receive such lessons as may best promote their improvement. It is, also, of serious interest to those who wish to be able to read and play on the Piano, and to give the first lessons of music to their children, as regular order as possible, as all future success will depend upon it.

His recommendations for success in teaching for the last ten years in Washington and vicinity are of the highest character. He feels confident that he is able to teach in a systematic and efficient manner, and in a profitable manner. He solicits an early call from those interested, so that they may secure convenient hours for their lessons. All necessary information will be given to persons by calling at his residence, (14th street, between F and G streets), or by leaving their names at the music store of Mr. Durall & Bro, between 5th and 6th streets, near Pennsylvania Avenue. He hopes by fair and honorable dealing, and prompt attention to business, to merit and receive a full share of public patronage.

THE LETTER OF EX-VICE PRESIDENT DALLAS.

The recent letter of Ex-Vice President Dallas, published in the Texas papers, assumes that the compromises of the Constitution will not be adhered to, a presumption which we do not subscribe to, and which is not warranted by the facts. We believe that the Constitution, as it exists, furnishes ample protection for the rights of every section of the Union. It is neither necessary nor expedient, at the present time, to introduce such an exciting discussion as Mr. Dallas would raise in his proposition to amend the Constitution. The following is the gist of his letter:

"With me there is no doubt that if my countrymen be given the legitimate opportunity, they will expressily and unequivocally prohibit, sooner or later, what I have heretofore humbly believed they had by the strongest implication already prohibited. They will prohibit from being forced by the sophistries of zealots to enact the part of consolidation; they will place the constitutional canon, too palpable for misconstruction, against the self-slaughter of intermeddling with institutions and rights exclusively of State creation, State responsibility, and State control; they will render it impossible, by any process short of treason and revolution, to convert the confederacy into the means of destroying the equality of its own members, or to direct its energies to fulfill the behests of some higher law, starting up like the eulistica of the minute, from the ever-raging and incalculable phantasies of the inner man."

"At last it has become quite manifest (has it not?) and why repress our convictions? that the expectations fondly indulged, of tranquillizing the country by the legislative measures, is delusive. The act for the extradition of fugitives is the pretext for protracted and persevering war upon the guarantees of the Constitution; and if we are to raise the siege to which instrument is still subjected, can we do better than reinforce it from the arsenal, and with the orders of the people? I desire nothing so much as the safety of the Union—place it beyond the striking distance of cunning as mad fanaticism—do this, if you can, without resorting to the final remedy; but if you cannot, then give to the Constitution an express, positive, prohibitory amendment, which shall forever end the entanglements and pretenses of interpretation."

ANOTHER EUROPEAN CONVULSION AT HAND.

Mr. Walsh, now a resident of Paris, writes from that city under date of September 10th, to the Journal of Commerce, as follows:

"That great events are just before us, is certain. That crisis of which I have often spoken to you is drawing very near. Between the 16th day of September and the middle or end of next May, the destinies of Europe for probably half a century—which in these days is a very long time—will be decided. A fierce struggle—it may be a most desperate and bloody struggle—between liberty, civil and religious, on the one hand, and hoary despotism in politics and religion on the other. What will be the issue? God only knows!

I feel that there is a wonderful activity here in the political world. The foreign ambassadors, especially those of Austria, Prussia, and Russia, have frequent conferences, and are constantly sending and receiving despatches. Nor are the ministers resident of the smaller Powers, such as Sardinia, Naples, Spain, the States of the Church, Belgium, and Holland, idle. Those of England and the United States are wide awake, and the former has not a little to do to look after these continental States, and the movements of their rulers."

ESSENCE OF COFFEE.

With 124 Cents to save four Pounds of Coffee!

THIS ESSENCE has been prepared by the most skillful and experienced chemists, and is the result of the richest and most respectable families, as well as by the poorest class of people, almost through the whole of the United States. It is intended to be used with coffee for the purpose of improving it. It is found to be useful for the purpose of improving it. It is found to be useful for the purpose of improving it.

I have examined the Essence of Coffee manufactured by Hummel, Bohler & Co., and find that its constituents are not in the least degree injurious to health; it may be used freely and with the greatest advantage.

JAMES BOOTH, Prof. of Chemistry, applied to Arts, Franklin Institute.

No. 73 Chambers st., New York, Aug. 2d, 1851.

I have examined an article prepared by Messrs. Hummel, Bohler & Co., of Philadelphia, and find that its constituents are not in the least degree injurious to health; it may be used freely and with the greatest advantage.

I have examined the Essence of Coffee manufactured by Hummel, Bohler & Co., and find that its constituents are not in the least degree injurious to health; it may be used freely and with the greatest advantage.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D., Chemist.

YORK, Penna., Aug. 4, 1851.

Messrs. Hummel, Bohler & Co.—Gentlemen: We take pleasure in recommending your "Essence of Coffee" as a very superior article; it is extensively used in our country, and we have only to say in your favor that it is a very good article.

We believe it to be one of those articles that will remain in constant use, and the more it becomes known the greater will be the demand for it.

Yours, respectfully, C. A. MORRIS & CO.

This Essence of Coffee may be had, wholesale and retail, at the corner of E and 7th streets.

June 4—4m J. F. CALLAN.

BETTER THAN GOLD!

MR. J. E. BOHMER—Dear Sir: I feel it a duty to make known the benefit I have derived from Dr. Hampton's VEGETABLE TINCTURE. For a number of years I suffered from disease, but to a greater degree for the last three years. One of the forms of my disease was dyspepsia, and I had a great deal of trouble in getting on my feet. I was really a burden. The attack of it on me was different to that on any other person of whom I have heard; at times it was like the palpitation of the heart, and at other times it was like a heavy weight on my stomach; some of the attacks would last for weeks; my stomach was much enlarged, with considerable flatulence, and I was unable to eat the food I desired. I could not eat the most simple food without pain. I also suffered greatly from disease of the kidneys, with constant pain in the back, and I was unable to get on my feet. I tried nearly all of the most celebrated patent medicines of the day, but found no relief. I had also the best medical advice, and I was told that I was dying. I was told that I was dying. I was told that I was dying.

I was told that I was dying. I was told that I was dying. I was told that I was dying.

I was told that I was dying. I was told that I was dying. I was told that I was dying.
